J. D. HARRIS, Alpena.

Congressional Committee.
Bay City, Mich., Aug. 30, 1888.

Rev. Washington Gardner, of Albi-oni, who is a member of the Michigan Methodist Conference and also department commander of the Michigan G.

A. R., has been transferred to Ohio, and will hereafter preach in a Cincinnati church.—Detroit Journal.

Ed. Gould, of Indianapolis, who has been circulating the story about

Gen. Harrison saying during the strike of 1877 that $1 a day was good enough for workmen, has been proved to have said that he made up the yarn for campaign purposes.—Del. News.

Minnesota finds high license a practical method of reducing the saloons and keeping in bonds those who continue in business. The liquor dealers themselves are beginning to favor high license and strict enforcement of the laws, thus suppressing the "moonshine" element that is disinclined to pay tax or close up in accordance with the statutes.

The expenditures of this administration have been $95,000,000 more than those of its predecessors. Money seems to have been lavished on about everything and everybody except the veterans.—National Tribune.

Cleveland, when Governor of New York, vetoed a bill passed by the legislature, making it a penal offense to rampantly wear a Grand Army badge. It was an effort to keep some of his friends out of duress vile and to relieve him of the trouble of pardoning them.

The republicans in New York are in solid phalanx for the first time in four years. There are no more stalwarts and half-breeds, but all are protectionist republicans. The Empire State will roll up a tremendous majority for HARRISON and MORTON this fall.—Blade.

The extraordinary dimensions of the Republican victory in Vermont may be judged from the facts that the plurality for Blaine in the presidential election, four years ago, was only 22,183, while the republican plurality now is about 27,000. How near a clean sweep this may be judged from the fact that the total vote in Vermont is less than 60,000.—State Republican.

The editor of a democratic sheet not not a thousand miles from here, which was formerly republican, wrote secretary Tillman of the State Central Committee that he had changed for pecuniary reasons, and he could change back for the same consideration. He was informed that he was not wanted, at any price.

History records the coolness of Napoleon at Arcola; Caesar at the Robson; Grant at the Wilderness and John Rogers at the state, but the historian of today tells in burning words how a presidential candidate in the U. S., who bravely and gallantly hung 2 men with his own hands, rather than allow some one else, an unknown, to receive the $250,000 which was allowed by law in the State of New York for this low and disgraceful service.—N. Y. Sun, (Dem.)

The Democrat in behalf of its party claims that it is not and never was opposed to equal rights and a fair count.
Henry Waterson, editor of the Courier Journal, the leading democratic paper in the South, in an article, which he wrote for the Forum, says:
"I should be entitled to no respect or credit if I pretended that there is either a fair poll or count of the votes where there is a negro majority, or that, in the nature of things, present, there can be."

The election in Maine last Monday was a triumph for the republicans democrats (free traders). The republican majority is larger than before at an October election and is equal to Blaine's majority in November 1881.
The republicans elect governor, all of the congressmen, all of the State Senators, and increase their majority in the House. The Maine election settles the question of who is to be elected president, and it is now as certain as anything in the future can be that Harrison and Morton will be elected in November, and every Northern State without exception, will go republican.

Senator Allison raised quite a commotion among the democrats in the Senate; last week, when he stated that Cleveland's administration had cost the country so far $95,000,000 more than any of its predecessors. Senator Beck, of Kentucky, admitted the fact but Senator Gorman of Maryland deplored the bad taste shown by Senator Allison at this time, "on account of its partisan effect, and this was not the time to debate the problem."

All will remember how during the last presidential campaign, the democratic speakers howled about republican extravagance in the management of national affairs. Well, a democratic reforma administration has been running affairs for three years and a half and during that time the expenses of the government have exceeded the four years of Garfield and Arthur $95, 309,663 and for the entire four years of democratic economy the administration asks for $113,319,791 more than it cost to run it the last four years of republican administration.— Cheboygan Tribune.

The appalling ravages of yellow fever at Jacksonville, Florida, has led the DETROIT JOURNAL to open a subscription for the sick and 8,000 and over, who are officially reported to be without means of support, but yet who, by the rigid quarantine regulations, are hopelessly shut up in the plague-stricken city. The DETROIT JOURNAL publishes from day to day the acknowledgments of all gifts sent, with the names and addresses of the donors, and the readers of this paper should liberally and quickly respond to the appeal by forwarding to the DETROIT JOURNAL their gift, which may be sent by P. O. order or in pos-table stamps, small amounts will be as acceptable as large. There is no doubt but that our readers are willing and anxious to help, and have only waited for an opportunity. This opportunity is now supplied by the DE- TROIT JOURNAL.

The DETROIT JOURNAL, last week, made a mistake and whacked the republicans twice in succession. As we have kept the run of it, the democrats should have that extra thump. We want our every-other-day dose kept square, mister. No partiality in the guerrilla business.—Oshtemo Outlook.

The extraordinary republican gains in the Vermont State election last week is attracting the attention of the whole country. The result of the election is certainly an eye opener for the free traders. The State senate is unanimously republican and large gains were made in the House. Complete returns from all the towns in the State give Dillingham, republican, for governor, 46,380; Shortell, dem., 19, 426; Seeley, prohibitionist, 1,209 and 6 scattering. Dillingham's plurality is 28,954, and his majority over all is 27, 650. This is the largest republican majority ever given in Vermont.

The City Council of Buffalo, N. Y., in 1882, passed an ordinance appropriating $300,000 to assist in paying the necessary expenses incurred in decorating the soldier's graves on Decoration day. Mayor Cleveland, the patriot and liberty lover vetoed it for the reason that those who had friends buried in the cemetery, should pay the expense themselves if they wanted their graves decorated. He is conscientious and constitutionally opposed to decorating the graves of soldiers, even of the man whom he hired as a substitute and refused to pay, and deme horse by allowing to die in an almshouse. No one but a public hangerman or seerish sympathizer would have been guilty of either of these acts.

Last week four democrats were on trial at Shoals Indiana, for the murder of Jackson Dufford, a Union soldier, during the rebellion, and if found guilty we trust that they will receive a punishment that is commensurate with the crime. If all who were guilty of murdering Union soldiers; burning property of republicans and war democrats; murdering of enrolling officers; sawing into railroad bridges previous to passage of trains loaded with soldiers; whereby hundreds were killed or maimed and other treasonable practices, were put on trial, the jails of the State would be filled to overflowing, and there would not be a corporal's guard left to vote for Cleveland and reform. The same state of affairs existed in other states, and the families whose protectors were in the army lived in constant fear of their lives being taken as the "buttermilk" were as British as they were ignorant. Violations of the same kind in that State by "White Caps" and of the Internal Revenue Laws by illicit distillers, are by citizens of counties that will give the democratic ticket a majority. No wonder they vote as they do. Well known "buttermilk" as: Voorhees, Turpie, and Cleveland and Thurman. Cleveland is particularly endeared to them, on account of failing to pay his substitute what he agreed, and allowing him to die in the almshouse.

Democrat papers and stump speakers are claiming that the Union soldiers owe the reception of pensions to a greater extent, to the democrat party than to the republican. But this is not the case. There have been but six general pension acts passed during the time that they have had control of the lower House of Congress, and two of these originated in the Senate. The aggregate vote as compiled from the records, is as follows: Democrats for, 334; against 510. Republicans for, 472; against 1. It will thus be seen that if the passage of these bills had depended on the democrats, they would have been defeated. The Mexican War Pension Bill is the only bill, either public or private, that a majority of the democrat representatives ever voted for, and this is accounted for from the fact that Southerners and ex-Confederates were more largely benefited by it. The ex-soldiers, (Union) owe nothing to the democrat party for passing either public or private pension bills. Republican congressmen have always voted solidly in their favor, with the exception of Bisbee of Florida, who voted against the Mexican Pension Bill. The democrats have either voted against or abstained under the lead of some ex-Confederate to prevent the passage of nearly every measure that the Grand Army of the Republic and the republican party were in favor of. The democrats caused the rebellion and the least they can do to atone for the want and suffering they caused, is to pass the necessary legislation to mitigate it as it can never be thoroughly remedied.

An Explanation.
What is this "nervous trouble" with which so many seem now to be afflicted? If you will remember a few years ago the word Malaria was comparatively unknown, to-day it is as common as any word in the English language, yet this word covers only the meaning of another word used by our fore fathers in times past. So it is with nervous diseases as they and Malaria are intended to cover what our grandfathers called Biliousness, and all are caused by troubles that arise from a diseased condition of the Liver, which in performing its functions it cannot dispose of the bile through the ordinary channels is compelled to pass off through the system, causing nervous troubles, Malaria, Biliousness, Fever, etc. You who are suffering can well appreciate a cure. We recommend Green's August Flower. Its cures are marvelous.

Century Magazine.
An unfamiliar face greets the reader in the frontispiece of the September CENTURY, that of Edward Thring, the late Head-Master of the Uppingham Grammar School, England. This is a compliment paid to an educator pure and simple. Mr. Thring has been said to have been, since Arnold of Rugby, the most highly esteemed educator of England. This is, in fact, an educational number of the CENTURY. Other articles on this subject are "The Industrial Idea in Education," by Chas.
M. Carter; "The University and the Bible," by T. T. Munger; "Women who go to College," by Arthur Gilman; and a profusely illustrated paper on "College Fraternities," by John Addison Porter.

It may be added that the poet Sill, about whom Miss Phelps writes with so much enthusiasm, was a notable teacher as well as a poet.

Other articles in this number are a continuation of the Life of Lincoln; George Kennan on "Exile by Administrative Process;" and A. C. Gordon on "Hard times in Confederacy."

The ex-Confederate General Colston writes freely and reconstructively of "Gettysburg Twenty-five Years After."
Minister Romero explains his relations with General Grant during the time of Grant's failure; and John Banvard and General Fremont tell about "The Canal at Island No. 10."

The stories and sketches of the number are a continuation of Mr. Janvier's "A Mexican Campaign;" an illustrated story by James Lane Allen.

The poetry of the number is by Bliss Carman, Eugene Ashton, Walt Whitman, John Vance Cheney, Wm.
H. Hayne, and in "Brie-a-Bras" by Helen Gray Cone, W. J. Henderson, Frank Dempster Sherman and Annie D. Hanks.

When General Grant was president he appointed his son to a cadetship at West Point, and had his brother-in-law who was an officer in the regular army assigned to duty in Washington, and every democratic paper in the country cried out "nepotism." Senator Vance, of North Carolina has 27 members of his family or connections occupying positions in Washington, and you never hear a whisper about "nepotism" from their organs. In the U. S. Land Office at this place there are three brothers employed, and for all that we know attend to the business just as well as it could be done by others, but it looks as if a "public office" was, in this case, a "family trust," and the Democrat has not raised a single howl.

DOINGS OF CONGRESS.

The Wilson Bill Passes the House with Only Four Dissenting Votes.
Mr. MASON'S bill to pension Ellen X. Atten, of Chicago, who was a nurse throughout the late war, which passed the House, has been favorably reported to the Senate. The House, the 21st, passed the bill after a long discussion by the following vote: Yeas 14, nays 4. The bill grants pensions to Mrs. Atten, her husband, and their children. The House passed the bill granting pensions to Mrs. Atten, her husband, and their children. The House passed the bill granting pensions to Mrs. Atten, her husband, and their children.

TWENTY-TWO VICTIMS.

Four Persons Killed and Eighteen Injured in a Railway Collision.

A Cincinnati-bound freight train, heavily laden, dashed at full speed into the John Robinson circus train, which was standing at Corwin Station, fifty-one miles north of Cincinnati, at 10:15 a.m. The collision was so violent that the circus train was split in two, and the four persons ahead of it were telescoped. No damage occurred to the animals or the circus property, which were in the long train ahead of the wrecked train. Four persons were killed and eighteen were wounded. Of these were: Andy Smith, who was mortally wounded, and, strange to relate, the injuries to the other seventeen are all trifling. The killed are: John Churchill, of Stark; Ben Clabey, of Stark; W. A. Frank Smith, of Richmond, Ind.; Jack Lacy, of Chicago. The injured are: Andy Smith, of Stark; Ben Clabey, of Stark; W. A. Frank Smith, of Richmond, Ind.; Jack Lacy, of Chicago. CROP REPORTS.

They Are Very Favorable—The Average Yield of Wheat.

The following summary of the spring-wheat crop, and the condition of corn, appears in the Farmers' Review:
The reports from correspondents have been full and definite, and the outlook for spring wheat is higher than for any other crop. The average yield, as reported, is 10.5 bushels per acre. The highest average yield reported from any one county is 25 bushels, and the lowest is 5 bushels. The average yield of corn is 35 bushels per acre. The highest average yield reported from any one county is 45 bushels, and the lowest is 25 bushels.
